

THE ASSAM DRUGS CONTROL RULES, 1945

[Not printed]

Section 33 of the Drugs and Cosmetics Act, 1940, provided for the rule making powers of the State Government also and as such the Assam Rule were made. Sub-section (1) of this section was amended vide Drugs (Amendment) Act, 1955 (11 of 1955), with the object to maintain uniformity throughout the States, and the power to make rules with respect to in the State, and the power to make rules with respect to the manufacture, sale and distribution of drugs, which were earlier vested in the State Government were entrusted, vide this Amendment Act to the Central Government. The Drugs Rules, 1945 were so as enacted as Central Rules.

-- -- --